WAR NEWS.

Dispatches received in Washington announce the evacuation of WILMINGTON, N. C., by the Confederates, and its occupation by the U. S. forces, on the 22d inst. The Secretary of War ordered a hundred guns to be fired, in Washington, "in honor of the fall of Wilmington." A large number of prisoners, it is said, fell into the hands of the Federal troops—700 in all, and 38 cannon, including those taken at Fort Anderson. About 1,000 bales of cotton and 15,000 barrels of rosin were destroyed by the Confederates. They retreated northward, followed by Gen. Terry.

We have some speculations on military matters in the Southwest, which reach us from Cincinnati, via Philadelphia which may or may not be true. We are told that advices indicate a three fold movement to occupy Alabama and Mississippi. Thomas is to move from the north, Canby from the south, and a strong force of mounted infantry from Vicksburg—all of whom are to co-operate in the occupation of the States named.

Richmond papers of the 22d—Wednesday last—have been received at Washington.—They divulge nothing in regard to the pending military movements in the Carolinas; they notify their readers that they are silent in compliance with the wishes of the Confederate authorities.

A telegram from Louisville, dated yesterday, states that intense excitement existed at Knoxville, East Tennessee, owing to a report that Longstreet's command was moving on that place.

GENERAL NEWS.

William Cranch Bond, of Harvard College, died in Cambridge on the morning of the 17th instant. He was a man of more than ordinary ability in his special department of knowledge, and won considerable note by his plan for recording observations by electro-magnetism, known as the American method. He was born in Portland, Me., in 1789.

President Lincoln has ordered that the Penitentiary at Albany, New York; the State Prison at Clinton, New York; the Penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio; the Penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo, and such other prisons as the Secretary of War may designate for the confinement of prisoners under sentence of court martial, shall be deemed and taken to be military prisons.

The Edinburgh Review, in an article on the Confederation scheme now being modelled in the adjoining Colonies, speaks of the tidings falling "yet more welcome on our ears as the harbinger of the future and complete independence of British North America."

The Kentucky Senate has rejected the Constitutional amendment.
